CC Commandments
  ◦ Erica: CC Commandments aren't official but they are something that we try to remember at all times. Important for us to remember that we are representatives and the money that we allocate is not our money. We are simply allocating it for the student body.
    ▪ Other ideas
      [ ] No cell phone, texting, computers
      [ ] Don't have side conversations
      [ ] Ask questions
      [ ] Everyone has to be on a committee
      [ ] Everyone should have their own project
    ▪ Straw poll to support CC Commandments: 22 – 0

CC Committees
  ◦ Emily D: Explained the different committees.
    ▪ Griff: Explained SOC.
      [ ] Griff: It is important that we supervise what groups exist because of risk, not wanting to have too many clubs that do the same thing, not starting groups over and over again.
      ◦ Erica: The amount of funding that we will need to give a group is not under our consideration
    ▪ Matt: Explained CCCT.
    ▪ Ellen: Explained Great Ideas.
    ▪ Alphayo: Explained Community Matters.
    ▪ Victoria: Explained FinCom.
    ▪ Griff: Explained SOSC.
      [ ] Jochebed: Is the CEP a CC Committee?
      ◦ Erica: That is a full year committee that CC appoints people to. But we can still talk about what the CEP talks about and relay it back to them.

Budgets
  ◦ Emily D: Talked about what has been going on with the subgroup process. FinCom has been looking through the proposed budgets for the groups. Given out money to over 80 groups.
    ▪ Nata: Explained the budget for each group. Talk to Nata for details regarding individual
Erica: Groups that needed money up to now have becoming to CC Officers until the new Council came into being.

Nata: Overall we are funding about $2,200 less than last year, so we are about the same place that we were at last year. Which is good.

Erica: Explained abstention if on board of the group.
