- Budgets
  - Ephs for Life: Came this week because of our error they came later. Fully funded.
  - Partners in Health: Want money for video.
  - Ephlats: Want money to go and perform with another school.
  - Medical Corps: Want money to do first aid training.
  - Fiber Arts Club: Doing a sheep and wool festival.
  - SpringStreeters: Going to go and practice so need money for transportation.
  - Office of Student Laughs: Just need money for cleaning.
  - Motion to Approve All Budgets except Kinetic: Griff
    - Second:
    - Result: 21 – 0 – 1
  - Students For Justice in Palestine: Different calculation for transportation cost.
  - Women's Collective: Bringing in a street artist to do graphic art.
  - Real Food of Williams: Requesting money for movie screening, bike tour, and pot luck. Amounts they were requesting were kind of arbitrary.
  - Golf Scramble: Faculty and students playing golf. Amount of money requested could increase next year.
  - Healing Hands: Asking for money to reimburse Get Baked for baking for their story time. Should be a really big event on campus.
  - Motion to Approve CoSponsorship: Gideon
    - Second:
    - Result: 22 – 0 – 0
  - Kinetic: Expanding this year which is why the amount they are requesting has increased. The name tags were cut in addition to advertising.
    - Quinn: Fairly confusing budget. Would like to see it broken down into pieces before we vote on it as a slate.
  - Motion to Approve Everything Except the Conferences: Alyssa
    - Second:
    - Katie: 19 – 0 – 3
  - Community Matters: Want pizza for Community Matter this Thursday.
    - Motion to Approve: Ellen
      - Second: Maggie
      - Result: 22 – 0 – 0
- SOSC
  - Griff: Today SOSC met with Frosh Revue. Concerns about hazing activities that are considered to have gone on with Frosh Revue for a number of years. “Hell Week” has been going on for a number of years, and started this year, but was ended early. “Hell Week” is the first week of rehearsals for Frosh Revue. Intended to build the team, but was uncomfortable for Frosh. Was stopped early this year because of complaints. Told that Frosh revue was going to meet with SOSC. Since then, there has been another complaint. Met with the organization of the leadership and this is the rhetoric of the group, that is intended to be seen in a joking manner. Again, this email was forwarded on to Dean Bolton by a member of frosh revue.

- Griff: The committee recommends to censure the group. Move email over to Google. Would be removed from subgroup funding, but they don't receive subgroup. And all members would have to receive some kind of anti-hazing training. Also changes to the constitution. Also the censure will go for 26 months.

- Scott: Hope to remember context. Context of frosh revue communication in general. Exaggerated comic profanity. Had attempted to communicate with the frosh that this rhetoric was intended in the form of the joke. Were under the impression that the frosh understood this joke. Frosh Revue is a parody organization and what went on was intended as comic. Apparently this year we were wrong. In the constitution revisions, Hell Week is being revised.
  - Ariel: We have set aside time for one on one meetings with the frosh to assert that they are on the same page.

- Gideon: To what extent is this raised by the frosh or by the administration?
  - Griff: Every complain that has come up has been from the frosh to someone else.

- Jochebed: Think other groups have been treated more harshly for less.
  - Emily D: Also we have the problem that this is kind of the second case that we are facing?
    - Griff: If we do go further, the next step would be suspension. That seems extreme. If that were to happen, they wouldn't be able to have the show, and that seems unfair to the freshman.
    - Quinn: Thinks that there is a middle ground. Because while I don't want this, this seems too light.

- Gideon: This is incredibly different from the experience that I have with Frosh Revue. It has traditionally been a place that is extremely welcoming, and I worry that looking at this without any context is damaging. I think we are being much more severe with Frosh Revue than we are being with other student groups.
  - Jochebed: But if that is true, why are the students going to the Deans with problems?
  - Straw Poll:
    - SOSC Recommended: 14
    - Greater punishment: 2
    - Lesser punishment: 0
    - Different punishment: 3
  - Ellen: Thinks this solves this really well. Cuts off the problem, while allowing a group that adds a lot to campus to still exist.

- Katie: Concerned about breakdown in communication between directors and the rest of the group.
  - Matt: What would help the directors next year avoid this type of communication breakdown?
    - Scott: A lot of internal work has to be done by frosh revue.
  - Allegra: Worried about frosh being worried about reporting

- Motion to Censure Frosh Revue per SOSC's outline: Quinn

- SOC New Group Approvals
  - Cake Pops:
    - Emily D: Did they talk to Get Baked? If so, no point in talking about it.

  - Williams Strength
    - Griff: Sent to the administration. They approved it. Want to reach out to club sports to have lifting sessions together.
    - Motion to Approve Williams Strength: Quinn
      - Second: Funmi
      - Result: 18 – 1 – 2
  - Williams College Bitcoin Club
    - Griff: Can be a college club, but can not use college funds to purchase bitcoins or do anything with bitcoins under the college's name. Want to be part of the College Cryptocurrency network. Want to raise awareness of bitcoin in general.
    - Motion to Approve Bitcoin Club: Gideon
      - Second:
      - Result: 21 – 0 – 0
  - Williams Political Union
    - Griff: SOC had a problem with the group trying to do too much. Engaging in activity that other groups do and kind of broad and overreaching. Still need an updated Constitution from the group.
      - Zach: Political Union is a thing at a lot of other universities (Oxford, Harvard...)
    - Emily D: This reminds us of EphCappella, or Minco. Seems like these organizations should exist on their own first before coming together into a union.
    - Maggie: What is the benefit right now of having these leaderships together?
    - Funmi: Just seems like there needs to be communication with the other student groups on campus. So either need to do that or change the name?
    - Quinn: Separate groups does not preclude being a member of other groups. Can serve on multiple group boards. All great ideas, but would like the approve them separately.
    - Erica: One concern with approving each of the groups individually is that interest must be demonstrated. So worried that by breaking the groups up there won't be the interest.

  ◦ CUL
    ▪ Talking about big name speakers to come to Williams
  ◦ Funding
    ▪ Emily D: Right now we don't fund a lot of money for hotels. Too small an amount especially for in the city. Also, right now we only reimburse gas. Difficult because can only have p cards for 24 hours.
    ▪ Griff: From going over things with club sports, we've heard about club sports staying at some really horrible hotels. Also are making four people go in one room. Especially bad when people are injured. Also breaking the hotel policy everytime. Don't want our students to have to spend any more money out of pocket.
      ○ Alyssa: Do we have any idea for how much we'd give instead?
        ▪ Emily D: Hopefully treasurers can look at what happens in the rest of the Nescacs.
    ▪ Erica: In the future, Williams will have to submit a lot more information relating to crime to the government. So additional motivation to spend more money on getting better hotels.
  ▪ Debate Team: Pcards were used to pay for parking instead of being reimbursed. We used to be able to use this for gas, but we just got an email saying that we couldn't pay for gas. Before using the Pcard allowed us to avoid the reimbursement process, which can be a burden for students with financial aid.
    ▪ Matt: Why don't we let them use Pcards?
      ○ Emily D: Because they use the Pcard to fund the whole tank. And OSL isn't really checking how much gas they are supposed to buy.
        ▪ Erica: Maybe we could use the special gas card in the college cars. Maybe we could expand this system.
